The First Nowell

1. The first Nowell, the angel did say, was to certain poor wise men.
2. They looked up and saw a shining star three, full of glory.
3. And by the light of the north star they came, from Bethlehem, to the east.
4. This star drew them there in their right minds, and led them forth.
5. Then entered they there in keeping their promise, and gave great glory.

Shepherds in fields as they lay, in rest, and knee, and fields where they lay, the earth it did both there in keeping their promise. They gave great glory.

Sheep on a tent, and to stay right sense their cold winter's night, and to follow the star, that place where Jesus in deep, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell. Born is the King of Israel.
