By the Waters of Babylon

for three voices

This is one of our favourite rounds of all time. The harmonies it creates are absolutely beautiful. It was written by English composer Philip Hayes in the 1700s, but is more well-known from Don McLean’s 1971 album “American Pie”.

You’re welcome to copy this sheet.